

Companies | Electoral Commission                      donations and loans in Great Britain      You are in the Who can you accept donations and loans from? section Home donations and loans in Great Britain Who can you accept donations and loans from? View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: donations and loans in Great Britain Terms we use in this guidance Which donations are covered by the rules? What do you need to do when you receive a donation? How do you work out the value of a donation? Crowdfunding Auction prizes Sponsorship What must you record when you accept a donation? What do you do if you receive a donation from an impermissible or unidentifiable source? Which loans are covered by the rules? What do you need to do before you enter into a loan? How do you work out the value of a loan? What must you record when you enter into a loan? What do you do if you have a loan from an impermissible source? Who can you accept donations and loans from? Individuals Companies Limited liability partnerships Unincorporated associations Trusts Public funds and visits outside the UK Other sources Which donations and loans do you need to report? How to report donations and loans Companies What makes a company permissible? A company is permissible if it is: registered as a company at Companies House incorporated in the UK, and carrying on business in the UK You must be sure that the company meets all three criteria. How do you check company registration? You should check the register at Companies House, using the free Webcheck service at companieshouse.gov.uk . You should look at the full register entry for the company. How do you check if the a company is carrying on business in the UK? You must be satisfied that the company is carrying on business in the UK. The business can be non-profit-making. Even if you have direct personal knowledge of the company, you should check the Companies House register to see if: the company is in liquidation, dormant, or about to be struck off the company's accounts and annual return are overdue A company may still be carrying on business if it is in liquidation, dormant or late in filing documents, but you should make extra checks to satisfy yourself that this is the case. For any company, you should consider looking at: the company's website relevant trade, telephone directories or reputable websites the latest accounts filed at Companies House If you are still not sure if the company is carrying on business in the UK, you should ask for written confirmation of its business activities from the company's directors. What do you need to record? You must record: the name as it is shown on the register the company's registered office address the registered company number Last updated: 31 March 2022 Book traversal links for Companies Individuals Limited liability partnerships