

Who can you accept donations and loans from? | Electoral Commission
donations and loans in Northern Ireland You are in the donations and loans in Northern Ireland section Home donations and loans in Northern Ireland View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: donations and loans in Northern Ireland Terms we use in this guidance Which donations are covered by the rules? What do you need to do when you receive a donation? How do you work out the value of a donation? Crowdfunding Auction prizes Sponsorship What must you record when you accept a donation? What do you do if you receive a donation from an impermissible or unidentifiable source? Which loans are covered by the rules? What do you need to do before you enter into a loan? How do you work out the value of a loan? What must you record when you enter into a loan? What do you do if you have a loan from an impermissible source? Who can you accept donations and loans from? UK individuals Irish individuals UK companies Irish companies UK limited liability partnerships Irish limited liability partnerships UK unincorporated associations Irish unincorporated associations UK trusts Irish trusts Public funds and visits outside the UK Other sources Which donations and loans do you need to report? How to report donations and loans Who can you accept donations and loans from? A registered Northern Ireland political party can accept donations from and enter into loans with the following permissible sources: an individual registered on a UK electoral register, including overseas electors and those leaving bequests an Irish citizen, including those leaving bequests a UK-registered company which is incorporated in the UK and carries on business in the UK an Irish-registered company which is incorporated in the EU, and has an office in Ireland or Northern Ireland from which the carrying out of one or more of its principal activities is directed a UK-registered or Irish-registered political party a UK-registered or Irish-registered trade union a UK-registered or Irish-registered building society a UK-registered limited liability partnership which carries on business in the UK an Irish-registered limited liability partnership that has an office in Ireland or Northern Ireland from which the carrying out of one or more of its principal activities is directed a UK-registered or Irish-registered friendly, industrial or provident society a UK-based unincorporated association that carries on the majority of its business or other activities in the UK an Irish based unincorporated association that carries on the majority of its business or other activities in Ireland and has its main office in Ireland You can also accept donations, but not loans, from certain types of trusts, certain public funds and from anyone who is paying for the reasonable costs of a visit outside the UK. Although you can legally accept donations from charities as long as they are also permissible donors, charities are not usually allowed to make political donations under charity law. If you know that a donor is a charity, you should make sure that they get advice from the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland (or other charity regulator, as appropriate) before they make the donation. Last updated: 31 March 2022 Book traversal links for Who can you accept donations and loans from? What do you do if you have a loan from an impermissible source? UK individuals