

are in the Other registration options section Home Voter Other registration options Your location: Change England Northern Ireland Scotland Wales Overseas We're showing you content for . Select 'change' to choose a different location. On this page Help with the form Filling in your form Where to send your completed form Ways to vote First published: 7 April 2021 Last updated: 28 October 2022 Register to vote If you have been convicted and are serving a prison sentence of 12 months or less in a UK prison, and you would usually be resident in Scotland, you can register to vote. You will be able to vote in: Scottish Parliament elections council elections To register to vote, you'll need to download and complete an electoral registration and postal/proxy application form for prisoners. You should use the address in Scotland where you would be living if you were not in prison, or an address where you have lived in the past. If you can't give either of those addresses because you were homeless or are not allowed to return to your previous address, you can give the address of the prison in the UK where you are detained. Download the form Help with the form Help with the form If you're unable to print the application form, need it in an accessible format, or have any questions, contact the Electoral Registration Office for the address at which you want to register. Filling in your form The application form includes instructions on how to fill it in correctly. Where to send your completed form Once you have completed the form and made sure you have signed it, you need to send it to the Electoral Registration Office for the address at which you are registering to vote. You can send your form by post. You will be able to find the contact details and pre-paid and addressed envelopes in the prison library, or ask a prison officer for one. Find where to send your form Enter your postcode for the address you're registering at to get the address of the Electoral Registration Office for the area Enter a postcode Submit Postcode Ways to vote Apply to vote by post Apply to vote by proxy Your location: Change England Northern Ireland Scotland Wales Overseas We're showing you content for . Select 'change' to choose a different location. Related content Register to vote All you need to register to vote is 5 minutes and your National Insurance number. Elections in your area Enter your postcode to find your electoral services team at your local council. You need to send your postal and proxy vote application forms to them. Apply to vote by post Can't get to the polling station on polling day? Apply to vote by post by downloading and completing the application form. Apply to vote by proxy Can't get to the polling station on polling day? Ask a trusted person to vote on your behalf and apply for a proxy vote.