Alternatively, you can send us your notification by filling in Form TP1 and sending a signed copy of the form to us by email. In your notification, you can indicate whether your spending will fall below the reporting thresholds at UKPGEs. Please note, however, this reporting threshold will only be applicable for UK Parliamentary general elections held after 24 November 2023. When we receive your notification, we will consider the information you have provided and confirm in writing when your notification is in force. Your registration lasts for 15 months from the date on which you delivered a registration notification to us, but if it is due to expire during a regulated period it will be automatically extended until the end of that regulated period. If you want to renew your registration, you must send us Form TP3 no sooner than one month prior to the 12 month anniversary of your original notification and no later than three months after that date. Your notification will expire if you do not submit your renewal to us during this time. If your notification expires and you want to re-register, you will need to make a new notification. You can also renew using PFR Online . New restriction on registered political parties notifying as non-party campaigners If you are a registered non-party campaigner, you will not be able to register as a political party until you are no longer registered as a non-party campaigner. Registered political parties can no longer submit a notification as a non-party campaigner.
