

Other sources | Electoral Commission donations and loans in Great Britain You are in the Who can you accept donations and loans from? section Home donations and loans in Great Britain Who can you accept donations and loans from? View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: donations and loans in Great Britain Terms we use in this guidance Which donations are covered by the rules? What do you need to do when you receive a donation? How do you work out the value of a donation? Crowdfunding Auction prizes Sponsorship What must you record when you accept a donation? What do you do if you receive a donation from an impermissible or unidentifiable source? Which loans are covered by the rules? What do you need to do before you enter into a loan? How do you work out the value of a loan? What must you record when you enter into a loan? What do you do if you have a loan from an impermissible source? Who can you accept donations and loans from? Individuals Companies Limited liability partnerships Unincorporated associations Trusts Public funds and visits outside the UK Other sources Which donations and loans do you need to report? How to report donations and loans Other sources Registered political parties A party must be on the Great Britain register to be permissible. You can find the full list of Great Britain registered political parties on our register of political parties . Trade unions A trade union must be listed as a trade union by the Certification Officer to be permissible. You should check the official list of active trade unions on the Certification Officer's website . Building societies A building society must be a building society within the meaning of the Building Societies Act 1986 to be permissible. You should check the list of building societies registered by the Financial Conduct Authority on the Mutuals Public Register . Friendly societies, and industrial and provident societies Friendly societies, and industrial and provident societies must be registered under the Friendly Societies Act 1974, the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014, or the Industrial and Provident Societies Act (Northern Ireland) 1969 to be permissible. You should check the Mutuals Public Register maintained by the Financial Conduct Authority. What do you need to record? You will need to record: the name of the donor the address, as shown on the relevant register Last updated: 31 March 2022 Book traversal links for Other sources Public funds and visits outside the UK Which donations and loans do you need to report?