

Donations accepted | Electoral Commission      Search      Donations accepted      You are in the View donations and loans section Home      Donations and loans View donations and loans On this page Data in this section Accepting a donation Chart: Donations accepted by political parties by quarter Table: Donations accepted by political parties by type of donor First published: 16 July 2019 Last updated: 16 May 2023 Summary box Registered political parties have to report donations they've accepted on a quarterly basis. We publish these donations on Political Finance Online . The rules for publishing this information are different in Northern Ireland. Legislation doesn't allow us to publish any information about donations and loans from before 1 July 2017. Data in this section Donations accepted by political parties by quarter Donations accepted by political parties by type of donor Accepting a donation When political parties, individuals or other organisations accept a donation, they have to: record information about the donation, such as the amount and who it was from check the source of the donation, and decide if it comes from a permissible source decide whether to keep or return the donation, depending on its source report it to us, if it's over the reportable amount or if they returned it Chart: Donations accepted by political parties by quarter This chart shows donations accepted by political parties from 2001 onwards. You can view data from Great Britain or Northern Ireland or combine the information. It also shows late donations by party. Chart: Donations accepted by political parties by quarter Table: Donations accepted by political parties by type of donor Related content Register to vote All you need to register to vote is 5 minutes and your National Insurance number. Our Commissioners Donations and loans Find out about donations and loans to a political party, individual or other organisation Our Executive Team Meet our Executive Team, and find out more about them