

Accredited Organisations: submission of additional names | Electoral Commission Search
Accredited Organisations: submission of additional names
You are in the Observing elections and referendums section Home Observing elections and referendums Update application: Accredited organisation First published: 9 March 2021 Last updated: 11 August 2022 summary of page Please note this form is for organisations who are already accredited, to provide details of additional individuals for accreditation. If you wish to apply for organisational accreditation please click here. What you and your observers need to apply To add an additional name for accreditation, you will need: your organisation name an email contact for your organisation the names of the people who will be observing for your organisation, as well as a passport style photo and identification The photo needs to: just include the observer be a headshot, so that it includes their face and shoulders clearly show their face, with their eyes open be taken against a plain background The identification needs to show the observer's name and age. You can upload their: passport driving licence national identity card Northern Ireland electoral identity card 700KB is the maximum file size for all of the photos and ID. Anything above this cannot be processed. You can contact us via observers@electoralcommission.org.uk if any of the observers do not have this form of identification. Update application: Submit additional names Update application: Submit additional names