

Apply to be an accredited organisation | Electoral Commission Search

Apply to be an accredited organisation You are in the Observing elections and referendums section Home Observing elections and referendums Application: Accredited organisation On this page Before you apply What you and your observers need to apply
First published: 31 May 2019 Last updated: 11 August 2022 Before you apply Before you apply to be an electoral observer, you need to read: the Code of Practice for accredited electoral observer our privacy notice When you complete your application, you will need to confirm that you have read and understood all of these documents. What you and your observers need to apply To apply to accredit your organisation, you will need: information about your organisation your name and contact details, as the primary organisation contact the name and contact details of the secondary organisation contact to tell us how long you want your accreditation to last for, and where you want your badges to be delivered the names of the people who will be observing for your organisation, as well as a passport style photo and identification The photo needs to: just include the observer be a headshot, so that it includes their face and shoulders clearly show their face, with their eyes open be taken against a plain background The identification needs to show the observer's name and age. You can upload their: passport driving licence national identity card Northern Ireland electoral identity card 700KB is the maximum file size for all of the photos and ID. Anything above this cannot be processed. You can contact us if any of the observers do not have this form of identification. Apply Submit your application