

Attendance at the verification and count | Electoral Commission

Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain You are in the Verification and Count section Home Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain Verification and Count View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain Returning Officer and (Acting) Returning Officer Planning for the election Voter Materials Starting the election timetable Nominations Agents Absent Voting Polling station voting Verification and Count Planning for the verification and count Attendance at the verification and count Who can attend? Controlling admission and managing attendees Communication during the verification and count Verification The count Resources for (Acting) Returning Officers - Verification and Count After the election Resources for (Acting) Returning Officers Attendance at the verification and count As (A)RO, it is part of your role to ensure that everyone who wants to observe the verification and count has access to the information they need to enable them to do so. This section contains information on who can attend the verification and count, and guidance for your plans for communicating throughout the verification and count processes. Last updated: 31 May 2023 Book traversal links for Attendance at the verification and count Estimating the number of ballot papers Who can attend?