

You are in the View donations and loans section Home Donations and loans View donations and loans On this page Data in this section Public funds received by political parties Table: Public funds received by political parties broken down by type Chart: Public funds received by political parties broken down by type First published: 16 July 2019 Last updated: 16 May 2023 Summary box Political parties have to report donations that they accept and provide information on who these donations come from, including donations which are publicly funded. We publish all of the information we receive on Political Finance Online . The rules for publishing this information are different in Northern Ireland. Legislation doesn't allow us to publish any information about donations and loans from before 1 July 2017. Data in this section Table: Public funds received by political parties broken down by type Chart: Public funds received by political parties broken down by type Public funds received by political parties broken This table shows public funds received by political parties, this is broken down to individual donors. You can view data from Great Britain or Northern Ireland or combine the information. Information is searchable from each quarter from 2001 onwards. Table: Public funds received by political parties broken down by type Chart: Public funds received by political parties broken down by type Related content Registers of unincorporated associations Download and view the registers of unincorporated associations Donations accepted View data about donations accepted by parties and campaigners Donations reported late View data about donations reported late by parties Register to vote All you need to register to vote is 5 minutes and your National Insurance number.