

Access the guidance You can access the guidance by clicking the button below. Use the filter to narrow down your search to the type of guidance you need. You can also use the keyword search option to help you find something specific. Next

Donations and loans to other individuals and organisations Certain types of organisation and individual must follow rules on donations they receive and loans they enter into. These rules are set out in legislation. We create guidance to help you comply with the rules. You do not have to follow this guidance, but if you do, you will normally be doing enough to comply with the law. Search donations and loans to individuals and organisations we regulate on our online database Overview

Regulated donees Some people and organisations engaged in politics are called regulated donees. These are: Holders of some elective offices Members of political parties Groups of party members \(also known as members associations\) Donations and loans to Members of the UK Parliament \(PDF\) Donations and loans: guidance for regulated donees in Great Britain Northern Ireland donations and loans guidance to regulated donees Overview

Unincorporated associations We regulate the finances of unincorporated associations making political contributions of more than £25,000 during a calendar year. Unincorporated associations guidance Updates and other useful pages Forms and explanatory notes – Great Britain Forms and explanatory notes - Northern Ireland Update: Changes to the law on donations Donations and loans to regulated organisations and individuals View data about donations and loans to regulated individuals Registers of unincorporated associations Download and view the registers of unincorporated associations