

Recall petitions by numbers: Brecon and Radnorshire | Electoral Commission    Search Recall petitions by numbers: Brecon and Radnorshire    You are in the The process to challenge a sitting MP: review of the 2019 recall petitions section Home Recall petitions The process to challenge a sitting MP: review of the 2019 recall petitions On this page Running the petition Signing the petition Campaigning First published: 10 October 2019 Last updated: 10 October 2019 Running the petition Notification of petition Thursday 24 April Petition open Thursday 9 May-Thursday 20 June Number of signing places (maximum of 10) 6 Extended hours (outside 9am-5pm, Monday to Friday Open from 8am on Tuesdays; closed 8pm on Wednesdays Count Took place at 9am on Friday 21 June Signing the petition For a recall petition to result in an MP being recalled over 10% of people eligible to sign must do so within the six-week signing period. We can see from petition data that the majority of those who signed did so within the first two weeks of the petition opening. How many people were eligible to sign 53,032 How many signatures needed to recall MP 5,303 Number who signed 10,005 - this was 19% of people eligible to sign Spoilt signing papers 41 We can also see from this data how people chose to sign the petition. How people chose to sign the petition Campaigning People or organisations wishing to campaign for or against the recall petition and intending to spend over £500 were required to notify the PO that they wished to be a registered campaigner. There were three registered campaigners in Brecon and Radnorshire who have submitted donation and spending returns. Spending and donation returns