

elections You are in the section Home In this section Objectives for well-run elections in the current public health context Types of elections There are different types of elections which take place across the UK. These elections may be: nationwide, such as the UK Parliamentary general election in a devolved nation, such as the Scottish Parliamentary, Senedd, and Northern Ireland Assembly elections local, such as local council elections Elections in your area Enter your postcode to find out if there's an upcoming election where you live. Enter a postcode Submit Postcode Related content Register to vote All you need to register to vote is 5 minutes and your National Insurance number. Which elections you can vote in Learn more about which elections you can vote in. Types of elections about the types of elections in the UK. Voting in person Voting in person on polling day? Learn more about what to expect when you go to the polling station.