

Other sources | Electoral Commission donations and loans in Northern Ireland You are in the Who can you accept donations and loans from? section Home donations and loans in Northern Ireland Who can you accept donations and loans from? View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: donations and loans in Northern Ireland Terms we use in this guidance Which donations are covered by the rules? What do you need to do when you receive a donation? How do you work out the value of a donation? Crowdfunding Auction prizes Sponsorship What must you record when you accept a donation? What do you do if you receive a donation from an impermissible or unidentifiable source? Which loans are covered by the rules? What do you need to do before you enter into a loan? How do you work out the value of a loan? What must you record when you enter into a loan? What do you do if you have a loan from an impermissible source? Who can you accept donations and loans from? UK individuals Irish individuals UK companies Irish companies UK limited liability partnerships Irish limited liability partnerships UK unincorporated associations Irish unincorporated associations UK trusts Irish trusts Public funds and visits outside the UK Other sources Which donations and loans do you need to report? How to report donations and loans Other sources UK registered political parties You can find the full list of political parties registered with us on our register of political parties . Irish registered political parties The Irish register of political parties is maintained by the Electoral Commission (Ireland) . UK trade unions A UK trade union must be listed as a trade union by the Certification Officer or the Certification Officer for Northern Ireland to be permissible. You should check the official list of active trade unions on the Certification Officer's website or on the Certification Officer for Northern Ireland's website . Irish trade unions Irish trade unions must be registered by the Registrar of Friendly Societies of Ireland to be permissible. You should check the register of friendly societies maintained by the Registrar. UK building societies A UK building society must be a building society within the meaning of the Building Societies Act 1986 to be permissible. You should check the list of building societies registered by the Financial Conduct Authority on the Mutuals Public Register . Irish building societies An Irish building society must be registered by the Central Bank and Financial Services Authority of Ireland. You should check the Central Bank of Ireland's Registers . UK friendly societies, and industrial and provident societies UK friendly societies, and industrial and provident societies must be registered under the Friendly Societies Act 1974, the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014, or the Industrial and Provident Societies Act (Northern Ireland) 1969 to be permissible. You should check the Mutuals Public Register maintained by the Financial Conduct Authority. Irish friendly societies, and industrial and provident societies Irish friendly societies, and industrial and provident societies must be registered by the Registrar of Friendly Societies of Ireland to be permissible. You should check the register of friendly societies maintained by the Registrar. What do you need to record? You will need to record: the name of the donor the address, as shown on the relevant register Last updated: 10 August 2023 Book traversal links for Other sources Public funds and visits outside the UK Which donations and loans do you need to report?