

Our consultations | Electoral Commission      Search      Our consultations      You are in the section Home      In this section Response to consultation on draft statutory guidance: digital imprints Response to consultation on Code of Practice for Non-party s Response to statutory consultation on guidance for Returning Officers on assistance with voting for disabled people Consultation on revised enforcement policy Statutory consultation on guidance for Returning Officers: Assistance with voting for disabled people Consultation on draft NPC Code of Practice Consultation response: Performance standards for Returning Officers and Electoral Registration Officers Consultation on draft statutory guidance: digital imprints Consultation on draft guidance for Returning Officers: Assistance with voting for persons with disabilities Our response: Consultation on draft Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Strategy Consultation: Performance Standards 2022 Consultation: Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Strategy Draft Disability Action Plan: A Consultation Response to consultation feedback on the Codes of Practice on spending by candidates and political parties at Senedd elections Consultation response: Draft performance standards for Electoral Registration Officers Codes of Practice on spending by candidates and political parties at elections to the Scottish Parliament: a consultation Draft performance standards for Electoral Registration Officers Codes of Practice on spending by candidates and political parties at elections to the National Assembly for Wales: a consultation Response to feedback on the codes of practice on spending by candidates and political parties consultation Electoral observer scheme and code of practice consultation response Standing for election in the United Kingdom: Report and recommendations Why we hold consultations We hold consultations to find out what others think about current processes, or our proposals for change. If you're looking for an older consultation, contact us.