

Donations and loans to regulated organisations and individuals | Electoral Commission Search

Donations and loans to regulated organisations and individuals You are in the View donations and loans section Home Donations and loans View donations and loans On this page Data in this section Regulated donees Donations to regulated donees First published: 25 July 2019 Last updated: 16 May 2023 Summary box Some people and organisations engaged in politics are called regulated donees. These are: holders of some elective offices members of political parties groups of party members (also known as members associations) Data in this section Donations to regulated donees Regulated donees Regulated donees are subject to controls on the donations and loans that they can accept in connection with their political activities in their capacity as a regulated donee. Regulated donees must report to us on donations and loans they accept. Reports must be made within 30 days of accepting the donation or entering into the loan. We publish these reports every month. Donations to regulated donees This table shows the donations and loans reported by regulated individuals and organisations by month. Donations to regulated donees Related content Registers of unincorporated associations Download and view the registers of unincorporated associations Donations accepted View data about donations accepted by parties and campaigners Public funds View data about public funds received by parties Register to vote All you need to register to vote is 5 minutes and your National Insurance number.