

The regulated period | Electoral Commission

Non-party

campaigners: Council elections in Scotland You are in the Non-party campaigners: Council elections in Scotland section Home Non-party campaigners: Council elections in Scotland View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: Non-party campaigners: Council elections in Scotland What are non-party campaigners? Local campaigns at council elections The regulated period Spending limits Reporting Imprints The regulated period We call the time when the spending limits and rules apply the regulated period. The regulated period starts on the day after the person you are campaigning for or against officially becomes a candidate, and finishes on polling day. You can find more information about polling dates and when people become candidates on our guidance page for candidates and agents . Last updated: 8 December 2021 Book traversal links for The regulated period Local campaigns at council elections Spending limits