

The register and forms | Electoral Commission      Unincorporated associations

You are in the Unincorporated associations section Home Unincorporated associations View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: Unincorporated associations When does an unincorporated association have to register with us? What does a registered unincorporated association have to report? Unincorporated associations that are also members associations Declarations and offences The register and forms The register and forms Register of recordable gifts to unincorporated associations We publish the registers of unincorporated associations and of recordable gifts to unincorporated associations. This register will not contain the home address of any individual. If you report gifts to us but the notification has not been made, meaning you have no entry on the register, we will not include the identity of any individual making gifts unless we have first given that individual notice. Individuals will then have 45 days in which to make representations as to why their identity should not be included in the register.

Forms Form UA1 and explanatory notes: Notification of political contributions Form UA2: Report of gifts received by an unincorporated association before a political contribution was made Form UA3: Report of gifts received after a political contribution is made Form MA1 Quarterly report for members' associations that have made political contributions Last updated: 16 February 2022 Book traversal links for The register and forms Declarations and offences