

Starting the election timetable | Electoral Commission

Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain You are in the Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain section Home Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain

Returning Officer and (Acting) Returning Officer Planning for the election Voter

Materials Starting the election timetable The issue and receipt of the writ Notice of election Poll Card delivery Resources for (Acting) Returning Officers - Starting the election timetable Nominations Agents Absent Voting Polling station voting

Verification and Count After the election Resources for (Acting) Returning Officers

Starting the election timetable This section of the guidance covers the statutory actions that must take place to enable the election timetable to formally commence.

This includes: the process for the issue and receipt of the writ the subsequent publication of the notice of election the requirement to deliver poll cards as soon as is practicable after the notice of election is published Last updated: 31 May 2023

Book traversal links for Starting the election timetable Ballot paper security The issue and receipt of the writ