

Non-party campaigners: Combined authority mayoral elections in England | Electoral Commission

Non-party campaigners: Combined authority mayoral elections in England      View the navigation tree      Go to main guidance section:

Non-party campaigners: Combined authority mayoral elections in England What are non-party campaigners? Local campaigns at local elections The regulated period Spending limits Reporting Imprints Introduction This guidance is for non-party campaigners who are campaigning at combined authority mayoral elections in England. Under the Representation of the People Act 1983, non-party campaigners must follow rules about how much they can spend on campaign activities in the run up to certain elections. This guidance explains how the rules apply. Book traversal links for Non-party campaigners: Combined authority mayoral elections in England What are non-party campaigners?