

Apply to be an individual accredited observer | Electoral Commission Search Apply to be an individual accredited observer You are in the Observing elections and referendums section Home Observing elections and referendums Application: Individual electoral observer On this page Before you apply What you need to apply First published: 31 May 2019 Last updated: 11 August 2022 Before you apply Before you apply to be an electoral observer, you need to read: the Code of Practice for accredited electoral observers our privacy notice When you complete your application, you will need to confirm that you have read and understood all of these documents.
What you need to apply To apply as an individual, you will need: your name, address and contact details to tell us how long you want your accreditation to last for, and where you want your badge to be delivered to upload a passport style photo and your identification Your photo needs to: just include you be a headshot, so that it includes your face and shoulders clearly show your face, with your eyes open be taken against a plain background Your identification needs to show your name and age. You can upload a copy of your: passport driving licence national identity card Northern Ireland electoral identity card 700KB is the maximum file size for the photo and ID.
Anything above this cannot be processed. You can contact us if you do not have this form of identification. Apply Submit your application