

Elections during the annual canvass | Electoral Commission

Delivering the annual canvass - Scotland You are in the Delivering the annual canvass - Scotland section Home Delivering the annual canvass - Scotland View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: Delivering the annual canvass - Scotland Developing plans for the annual canvass Data matching for the annual canvass Allocating properties to canvass routes Route 1 – the matched property route Route 2 – the unmatched property route Route 3 - the defined property route Processing canvass responses Elections during the annual canvass What do I need to consider if an election is held during the annual canvass? How can I target new electors if an election is held during the canvass? Publication of the revised register Elections immediately following the canvass How should I evaluate the success of the annual canvass? What are the data protection considerations for an Electoral Registration Officer? Resources for Electoral Registration Officers Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities resources for Electoral Registration Officers Elections during the annual canvass Elections during the annual canvass This section of the guidance covers the areas you will need to consider and decisions you will need to take in relation to both the delivery of the canvass and the management of electoral registration for the poll, if an election is held during the canvass period. Last updated: 15 June 2020 Book traversal links for Elections during the annual canvass What are the penalties for failing to respond to a canvass communication or providing false information? What do I need to consider if an election is held during the annual canvass?