

(Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain You are in the Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain section Home Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: Guidance for (Acting) Returning Officers administering a UK Parliamentary election in Great Britain Returning Officer and (Acting) Returning Officer Planning for the election Voter Materials Starting the election timetable Nominations Agents Absent Voting Polling station voting Verification and Count Planning for the verification and count Attendance at the verification and count Verification The count Resources for (Acting) Returning Officers - Verification and Count After the election Resources for (Acting) Returning Officers Verification and Count This section is intended to help you make decisions about some of the key aspects of delivering the verification and the counting of the votes, such as managing attendance and observation, ensuring security of ballot papers, audit processes and dealing with doubtful ballot papers. It provides guidance to support the key decisions you need to make, and highlights recommended approaches to assist you in understanding and discharging your duties, ensuring that there is transparency in the process and enabling you to deliver an accurate result in which voters, candidates and political parties have confidence. Last updated: 31 May 2023 Book traversal links for Verification and Count Resources for (Acting) Returning Officers - Polling station voting Planning for the verification and count