donations and loans in Northern Ireland

You are in the Party conferences and conference stands section Home donations and loans in Northern Ireland Sponsorship Party conferences and conference stands View the navigation tree Go to main guidance section: donations and loans in Northern Ireland Terms we use in this guidance Which donations are covered by the rules? What do you need to do when you receive a donation? How do you work out the value of a donation? Crowdfunding Auction prizes Sponsorship Are there any exemptions to the sponsorship rules? How much of what you receive is a donation? Party conferences and conference stands Digital conference stands Physical conference stands Fringe events, receptions and meetings Conference or event packages What must you record when you accept a donation? What do you do if you receive a donation from an impermissible or unidentifiable source? Which loans are covered by the rules? What do you need to do before you enter into a loan? How do you work out the value of a loan? What must you record when you enter into a loan? What do you do if you have a loan from an impermissible source? Who can you accept donations and loans from? Which donations and loans do you need to report? How to report donations and loans Conference or event packages Some parties may offer overall discounts when a combined package of items relating to an event are purchased together, for example a conference stand, a number of admission passes, and a number of seats at a dinner. If you offer a conference package, you will need to consider each part of the package to assess whether it is reportable. Some elements may be exempt, such as an admission charge, whilst others elements of the package, such as non-exempt types of advertising, will be treated as sponsorship if they help to meet the costs of the event. Last updated: 31 March 2022 Book traversal links for Conference or event packages Fringe events, receptions and meetings What must you record when you accept a donation?